11:00 am to 12:00 am

Where: Webinar via ZOOM

Solana Center
FOR ENVIRONMENTAL INNOVATION

EPA defines Zero Waste as more than just a problem of disposal but a need to reduce harm encompassing the entire life cycle of a product. Humans are consuming more today than at any other time in our history. E-commerce continues to grow each year with more people ordering today than ever before. Confused about Zero Waste? What can and can't be recycled? Learn the basics of waste reduction, why it's important, and how to keep at it even with our changing circumstances. We dive into the concepts of Reduce, Reuse, Recycle. Participants will learn practical tools to start reducing waste
